It's Google's virtual reality headset for Android phones (in two styles: one with a loose strap, one that clips to the phone). Like the best Google hardware devices of the past, the headset will be an afterthought to the Google Pixel, the company's first truly great smartphone. Rather than try to compete directly with mobile-phone sales — a strategy that has arguably worked for Google in the past with Nexus devices — Google is hoping the Daydream View will succeed by being a killer app for phones that already have Google Assistant built in. The Daydream View is now available for preorder on Google's website for $79.95 (which you can get through Google's Project Fi service). It'll be available in early November. The Daydream View headset isn't actually designed to be used with

Addicting game. The original game had me hooked at first. I was just hoping it wasn't too simple. Let me see... wow. Nice graphics, good story, good music, good characterization, nice gameplay...but wait, that's all to easy... oooops. I am playing this game till 6am and my sleeping schedule is getting ruined, hopefully I can finish it... Gameplay is very awesome, you can use the cursor keys for inventory and the number keys to play instruments. As a mainstay in the genre, the enemies will have you on high alert, forcing you to use your wits to make it through. Being able to use the keyboard for inventory is awesome to avoid the boredom of using the mouse or to move that pesky inventory icon around. Anyway, if you like RPGs, you'll like this one. The only drawback is that you're going to have to play it a lot to get the back story and get the ending. If you like story driven games, you'll love this one. The art style is very vivid. You can tell that it's the real deal by the minute. And the enemy designs are great. You are constantly being challenged and if you fail, you'll be mad at yourself. The music is catchy and upbeat, which keeps you wanting to play more. Graphics aren't the best but the look of the game is still decent. Most users will be satisfied by this game as a whole. It's a keeper. The story is original. The gameplay is very good. The user interface is excellent. Sound is great. In fact, the only thing I find slightly annoying is that you have to press one more time to get to the next page. That's the only complaint I have. Aside from that, I really like this game. The only thing that I would have liked is if you could fast forward... I know, you're thinking, why would you want to fast forward? Well, the action is so intense that it just makes sense. I would have loved a fast forward that takes out the wait time between scenes. That's the only thing I think I would have liked. I still highly recommend this game. I'd recommend this game to anyone who loves character driven RPG games. What's this game that's so engaging? I know, I know, I can't shut up about it. But come on! It's not bff6bb2d33

TV Commercial

THESE WERE MADE FOR THE BATTLE ROYALE INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT. The Poem: GWYGIECYHJDFN KIFGNLMCHCSB VOHSFMHAGB WRVBZLIGGE The goal is to let Master Valoran know that GWYGIECYHJDFN is solely the result of KIFGNLMCHCSB WRVBZLIGGE like the people of Ao Kuang. □Poem is a rough translation of the Chinese that can be read as "I looked up at the stars and decided to create GWYGIECYHJDFN. Furthermore, KIFGNLMCHCSB WRVBZLIGGE is the mind and reason behind GWYGIECYHJDFN, like the people of Ao Kuang." □Master Valoran is a character from the game who is a legendary hero in the Lands Between

We have received reports from the preliminary tests after watching the commercial, and it seems to be a bit unnatural. Please do not misunderstand that this is a criticism.

60 F.Supp. 679 (1945) ALPHA FINANCE CO. v. MINTER. Civil Action No. 14496. District Court, S. D. New York. June 19, 1945. Lipson, Stein & Stern, of New York City (Charles S. Stein and Abraham Neuborne, both of New York City, of counsel), for the plaintiff. Wienstein, Gerson & Stern, of New York City (Abraham D. Gerson, of New York City, of counsel), for defendant. RAMOBEIST, District Judge. Defendant moves to dismiss the complaint on the ground that it appears from the complaint *680 filed herein and the annexed paper entitled "Notice of Motion" that plaintiff and the corporation which it represents have been previously adjudged bankrupt in a proceeding entitled "In the Matter of Alpha Finance Company, Inc., an insolvent." The court regards that fact as establishing the truth of that statement in that the record in that bankruptcy proceeding (Exhibit A), containing a certificate of the Referee in Bankruptcy which was served upon the plaintiff, and being a matter of record in the office of the Clerk of the Court, discloses that the plaintiff was adjudicated a bankrupt on May 23, 1941 and that on the same day a discharge was granted to plaintiff, "and discharge applied for by, defendant." In one of the papers annexed to the Notice of Motion it is stated that the plaintiff was insolvent at the time of the execution of the note on which the action is based and at the time of the alleged assignment, and that the note was given by the defendant to the plaintiff to secure the unpaid balance of a note secured by a mortgage executed on the same day of the execution of the note, the assignment and the loan. It is to be noted that the assignment is dated May 9, 1941, which would be less than four months before the order of adjudication in bankruptcy. Section 119 of the National Bankruptcy Act (11 U.S.C.A. § 599) provides that a discharge in bankruptcy shall not release a bankrupt from any debt or liability except a dischargeable one, not affecting the amount of the debt, incurred for fine, penalty, or forfeiture, nor a liability mentioned in Section 17 of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended March 3, 1933. Section 17 of the Act of September 16, 1934, as amended, has been held
