A printer or any device that creates a raster image from a page or photo is called a _raster image device_. A vector image is made up of vectors (which are lines, curves, and shapes rather than pixels) stored in a format that can be rendered by any program that uses them. Vector graphics are common because they have attributes such as clip art, construction paper, and rubrics that can be easily edited, but they're also appropriate for using in websites and other output such as newspapers. Most image editing programs can view either format and, if a file format for a specific type of image is not available, you can easily import or export a file to whichever format a particular program offers. ## Raster Images Graphics are stored as _raster images_. A raster image is a digital image made up of dots for each and every pixel on the page. A file is generally saved as a JPEG, TIFF, or GIF file with resolution (dots per inch) controlled by the file size. Raster images are used on computer screens because they're based on a pixel and can show colors in a much more vibrant way than vector images. If you need to create a printout of an image (a postcard, a calendar, or a map), you create a raster image file. In some programs, such as Photoshop, you can also create a raster image file from a photo or scan. ## Vector Graphics

Donald Trump's nephew has attempted to pressure one of the few GOP Senate candidates who has said that Trump used an illegal Mexican migrant as a "deterrent" against the migrant caravan heading to the U.S. border. Eric Trump took to Twitter to urge Mitt Romney to drop out of the U.S. Senate race in Utah, which he lost to Sen. Orrin Hatch (R-UT), because "Mitt Romney is a disaster for the GOP." Mitt Romney is a disaster for the GOP. If he could be replaced with Mike Lee, that would be great. — Eric Trump (@EricTrump) October 29, 2018 "Mitt Romney is a disaster for the GOP. If he could be replaced with Mike Lee, that would be great," he tweeted, per the Hill. Logan must win for the R's to have any chance in this Senate race. Romney is a disaster for the GOP. — Eric Trump (@EricTrump) October 29, 2018 The Utah Senate race will be one of two important races next week in a year when Democrats are expected to make significant gains in the Senate. Romney said in a statement earlier this month that Trump should stop using migrants as "a deterrent" against the migrant caravan. "I do not believe the use of military force will deter these people in the future. It probably will embolden them," Romney said. "I would suggest the White House reassess its approach in dealing with this caravan and put ourselves and other nations in the position of looking to help these people and solve these problems." After Trump initially said that the migrants were "invaders" and then later said that they should be able to "apply for asylum," Romney defended the migrants. Romney also retweeted a Fox News graphic that said that the caravan "has been infiltrated by terrorists," which was later corrected to say that only illegal migrants from the caravan had infiltrated the migrant caravan. Romney has said he does not support Trump's "zero-tolerance" policy that has separated more than 2,000 migrant children from their parents. But Romney has also said he disagrees with Sen. Ted Cruz (R-TX)'s defense of the president's policy of separating migrant children from their parents, calling it a "problem."
