Slideroscienceownloadcrack29 Q: How to display in gridview a list of an other GridView when that grid view is empty? I would like to know how can I make to open a new gridview when my first is empty. I use a adapter for populate my gridview and I have this listener : if(gridView.getAdapter().isEmpty()) { //what is the best way to display the second gridview } Thank you! A: That should be pretty simple using the View Holder pattern... if (gridView.getAdapter() == null) { // load data gridView.setAdapter(new MyGridAdapter(getActivity(), R.layout.gridview_item_layout, items)); // set listener so that when the user scrolls the first gridview it will then fill in the second gridview... gridView.setOnScrollListener(new OnScrollListener() { @Override public void onScrollStateChanged(AbsListView view, int scrollState) { if (scrolling) { 6d1f23a050
