If you weren't amongst the ones who missed out on the new flagship from OnePlus, here's your opportunity to grab your hands on the device. The OnePlus 6T is the best phone in the world right now in terms of performance, UI, and battery. To fully enjoy this device, a good Android power management app is required. Here are three of the best power management apps for the OnePlus 6T. PowerUp Defender To help you get the most out of your smartphone, you should have a good battery management software installed. One of the best apps is PowerUp Defender. This app will check your phone for power consuming apps and switches them off when you're not using them. If you're someone who loves to browse the internet on your phone, you will appreciate it when you can shut down your data connection and data over Wi-Fi when you're not using the internet. If you don't want to connect your phone to your Wi-Fi regularly, you can be a little bit sneaky with this app and check in when you're going to use your Wi-Fi, you'll be surprised on how many apps you've been using. What are some of your suggestions for good power management apps? R

The Beatles: Rock Band is a video game developed by Harmonix and published by MTV Games for the PlayStation 2, PlayStation 3, Xbox 360 and Wii. It is the first music video game to feature real live musicians with authentic vocal harmonies and guitar solos. The game was released on September 9, 2009 in North America. It received generally positive reviews, with critics praising the Beatles' songs and gameplay, but complaining about the game's lack of difficulty, lack of customization, and repetitiveness.

Hawaii Aloha returns in 2009
Second annual race honors Hawaiian culture, heritage
By Kimberly Parks
ORLANDO, Fla. (CBS.MW) -- The second annual "Hawaii Aloha" charity motorcycle race in Orlando, Florida, will be held Saturday at the Lake Myrtle Beach Amphitheater, and the focus will be on preserving Hawai'i's native culture. Organizers expect some 200 motorcyclists from around the world to be on hand to participate in the three-day event, with proceeds from each rider's entry going to the Native Hawaiian Center at The Kamehameha Schools in Honolulu. Native Hawaiians will perform and participate in various events throughout the weekend, while they receive traditional native dress, food and lauhala tops (a koa-wood decorated top worn by men). "Hawai'i Aloha is a way for people to come together to preserve our culture and make a difference," said John Mortensen, a lawyer from Honolulu. Mortensen said it's important for native Hawaiians to see their culture live and in person, and he hopes the event will help them. "There is no better way to learn about another's culture than to watch it live," he said. "Hawai'i Aloha" also aims to promote tourism in the state. The organizers hope that the event will help bring more revenue to the island of Oahu. The first "Hawaii Aloha" was held in 2008 in Boulder, Colorado. Organizers hope to build on that event, by bringing motorcycle racing to Hawaii. The "Hawaii Aloha" race starts at 2 p.m. local 04aeff104c
